

EDUCATING KIDS THROUGH THE ARTS

Through our Chatham Artists-in-Schools Initiative, we bring professional artists into schools to support math, science, language, and history curricula.

HOSTING BELOVED COMMUNITY EVENTS

The Chatham Arts Council creates two major community events each year, bringing smiles to around 2,500 faces. Pickin': A Music Celebration and ClydeFEST, a family-friendly, old-school kids' carnival celebrating local folk artist, Clyde Jones (AKA the "critter artist").

INVESTING IN ARTISTS

Through extensive promotions, like Meet This Artist and Go See This, and grant dollars, we invest in the artist community that makes us Chatham.

NEED A REASON TO PARTNER WITH US?

Raise awareness....

of your company and all you have to offer.

Support....

real impact in our community for both kids and artists.

Be counted....

among the diverse folks who believe the arts are important to life in Chatham County.

ABOUT THE CHATHAM ARTS COUNCIL

The Chatham Arts Council nurtures creative thinkers in Chatham County by investing in artists and educating kids through the arts. In its thirty-fifth year as a nonprofit arts agency, Chatham Arts Council's flagship programs include Meet This Artist, Go See This, Grassroots Arts Grants, and the Chatham Artists-in-Schools Initiative—serving close to 3,000 children this year.
