VOCAL STUDENTS

I take copyright laws seriously. There are vocal collection books that you will need to purchase once we have arrived at a certain point in your lessons. These books have many, many songs in different styles. There may be times when I need to give you a photo copy of sheet music. I would ask that you please not share this music with others and if possible make the effort to purchase the piece yourself.

PIANO STUDENTS

I prefer the series titled FABER PIANO ADVENTURES for my students. There are both adult and juvenile collections. Once we have established a skill level you will need to purchase the collection. Each level has 4 books; Theory, Piano, Performance and Technique. These can be purchased for a minimal charge and can be found at music stores and online. I am ALWAYS willing to help students with fun pieces which they are excited about that are not in this series. We can compromise on assigned material when the situation arises.

-Each student is unique and individual and so the way I teach and interact with each student varies. The constant remains the same. I treat each student with respect, kindness and encouragement. I truly believe that music is a powerful tool. We may not each be the next big star, but each of us has the ability to shine!
